

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has allowed us to enjoy family dinners without constant interruption.